Toy-Land

And how do you get to Toy-land?
To all little people the joy-land;
Just follow your nose
And go on tip-toes,
It's only a minute to Toy-land.

And ho! but it's gay in Toy-land,
This bright, merry girl-and-boy-land,
And woolly dogs white
That never will bite,
You'll meet on the highways in Toy-land.

Society's fine in Toy-land,
The dollies all think it a joy-land,
And fellows in the ark
Stay out after dark
And tin soldiers regulate Toy-land.

There's fun all the year in Toy-land,
To sorrow 'twas over a toy-land;
And steamers are run,
And steam-cars for fun,
They're wound up with keys down in Toy-land.

Bold jumping jacks thrive in Toy-land;
Fine castles adorn this joy-land;
And bright are the dreams
And sunny the beams
That gladden the faces in Toy-land.

How long do you live in Toy-land?
This bright, merry girl-and-boy-land?
A few days, at best,
We stay as a guest,
Then good-by, forever, to Toy-land!

—EUGENE FIELD.

Let's take another trip through Toy-land. What a jolly, fine place it is.

Everybody may come—grown up people as well as children, although Toy-land is children's possession. Around holiday time everybody is young and happy—or should be.

If we only had the room so that all the toys that go and do all sorts of queer tricks could show off. We haven't, though, so we'll do the best we can and be good natured about it.

Drums and trumpets for the martial spirited boy; here's a battleship on wheels; there is a wooden cannon mounted in regular artillery style. Make believe swords and helmets, too. And a locomotive that will run across the floor, ringing a bell as it goes—and all you have to do is to wind it up. Look at this! a locomotive, tender and two coaches, with track and switches. But we mustn't linger, or we'll not get through.

A merry go-round that you wind up; a little steam launch with a little rudder and propeller wheel whose motive power is alcohol all kinds of blocks for little tots; tools, too—some for as little as fifty cents each; black boards, and garden sets and banks and games, and—Was there ever such a place for getting fascinated and confused; so easily to get there, so hard to get away from—this Land of Toys.

Boys' Suits $1.00 to $1.50

Less than Usual.

A short time ago we placed about forty Boys' Suits on sale at $2.00 to $4.50, the former prices of which were $3.00 to $6.00. They were one and two suits of a kind that were left from regular stock—well made, worthy little suits that were all alone amid others complete in assortment. There are only a few of these suits left, but we've added more and about every size is in the lot again. It will take just a minute more to find the size, and you have made a $1.00 to $1.50—toward the boy's Christmas present.

$2.00 to $4.50 for suits that were $3.00 to $6.00.

Main Street

A. P. SKINNER,

Fashionable Dressmaker
Slugged in Washington.

Washington, Dec. 10.—Mrs. Ada Gilbert Dennis, a fashionable dressmaker, was found nearly dead in her room early this morning, having been slugged during the early hours by an unknown party. Her skull was fractured, her left ear almost severed from her head and the body badly bruised. She was removed to the Garfield hospital and during periods of consciousness said that some one had hurt her. Beyond this she was unable to say anything. There was no struggle in the room. The woman was hit several times with a piano stool, probably while she was asleep in bed. A large force of detectives are working on the case, but as yet have discovered no clues leading to the perpetrator of the crime.

The case promises to be as sensational as the Bonine case was. An operation was performed upon Mrs. Dennis at the hospital this afternoon in hopes of saving the woman's life, but it is not believed she will recover. She was unable to give any description of her assailant.

FIGHTING THE
LITTLE GOVERNORDelegation Going to Washington to Scalp the Official of New Mexico

Santa Fe, Dec. 10.—It is known here that the Washington correspondent of the Globe-Democrat stands very near to the Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock, and therefore when this morning it was known the St. Louis paper published a dispatch from its Washington correspondent that the charges against Governor Otero had been investigated and had been found groundless, and that his appointment would be sent to the senate very soon, there was jubilation among the followers of the little governor.

It is known, however, that J. F. Manning, secretary of the Republican Reform League, left yesterday for Washington, that E. A. Fiske left for Washington today, W. M. Berger intended to go tomorrow, and that T. B. Catron and these three will move as much of heaven and earth as they possibly can to prevent the governor's appointment at the last moment. No fear is felt by the administration Republicans that the opposition will accomplish their purpose.

The dispatch to the Globe-Democrat was as follows:
"The name of Governor Miguel Antonio Otero will be sent to the senate for confirmation as governor of New Mexico. This statement can be made without reservation. Charges made against the governor have not been substantiated to the satisfaction of the government officials. The charges were general in their nature, alleging incompetency and the appointment of corrupt minor officials in the territory. Later more charges of the same general tenor were added, but investigation failed to substantiate them, hence the determination to send the name to the senate. The appointment under which the government is now serving was a recess one."

Rumors are persistent here that Lieutenant W. E. Dame will be appointed collector of internal revenue and Major Fred Muller register of the federal land office to succeed Judge A. L. Morrison and M. R. Otero respectively. As no charges have been filed against either of these two federal officials, it is difficult to understand on what these rumors are based, for President Roosevelt, it is believed here, will hardly make places even for Rough Riders by failing to re-appoint two officials who have given good satisfaction.

The Las Vegas Copper Extraction company filed incorporation papers today. The incorporators are Harry W. Kelly, James W. Freeman and Joshua P. Hall. The capital is $500,000. Headquarters at Las Vegas. The directors are Harry W. Kelly, C. C. Robbins of Las Vegas, Frank Williams, George B. Dodge and Joshua P. Hall of Denver and Frank H. Hitchcock of Washington.

Texas Officials are
After the Railroads.

Austin, Texas, Dec. 10.—The railroad commission today issued an order to all railroads of the state informing them that on and after January first all trains in the Lone Star commonwealth must be run according to schedule, unless delayed by unavoidable accidents. Passenger trains shall not wait for other trains at junctions longer than thirty minutes. Railroads will be forced to post frequent bulletins announcing the arrival and departure of trains.

STATEHOOD.

Three Bills Have Been Introduced and Awaiting Appointment of Committee.

Washington, Dec. 10.—The advocates of statehood for Oklahoma, Arizona and New Mexico are confident they will have a safe majority in the House Committee on Territories for the statehood bill.

Speaker Henderson will not announce the personnel of the committee for several days yet, but it is known that there will be but few changes in the new committee on Territories. Representative Knox, of Massachusetts, will again be chairman. He is in favor of statehood and his attitude will influence the other members.

As soon as the committee on Territories has been appointed, the Statehood bills will be sent to it and then Mr. Flynn, Mr. Smith and Mr. Rodey, the Territorial delegates, will exert all their energies to have them favorably reported. It is believed the bills will be passed by a large majority.

Speaker Henderson is quoted as saying that, while he has serious doubts as to the creating states out of New Mexico and Arizona, he realizes that the conditions in Oklahoma are entirely different and that Territory should be admitted.

There is also a very pronounced sentiment favorable to Oklahoma in the senate. Senator Fairbanks is a staunch supporter of statehood and Senator Hanna is also among its friends. Senator Clark, of Wyoming, will probably be chairman of the senate committee. He favors the admission of all three territories to statehood. It is understood that the Democrats of the senate will antagonize the admission of Oklahoma unless Arizona and New Mexico are admitted at the same time. This will also be the attitude of the Democrats of the house.

Kruger Not Coming.

New York, Dec. 10.—Commandant Syman, formerly on the staff of General Dewey, is authority for the statement that ex-president Kruger of the Transvaal will not visit America.

English Stand Aghast.

London, Dec. 10.—Promoters of the London-Brighton Electric railroad announced that they will convey passengers forty-seven miles in 33 minutes. Englishmen stand aghast.

Record for the Week.

London, Dec. 10.—Reports show thirty-one Boers killed and three hundred captured during the past week.

CASHIER MISSING.

Henry J. Fleishman, of Los Angeles, Has Disappeared.

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 10.—Henry J. Fleishman, cashier of the Farmers and Merchants' bank of this city, has disappeared, and with him went a large sum of the bank's funds, estimated at a hundred thousand dollars.

Fleishman was last seen Saturday morning last. He telephoned the bank Saturday that he was ill, but nothing was thought of this. When he did not report today, H. W. Hellman, vice-president of the bank, instituted an investigation of the cash and discovered the shortage.

Fleishman lived at the California club, but left his apartments some time Saturday. No one has any idea of his whereabouts, but it is thought by some that he took advantage of his Saturday and Sunday's start and went south into Mexico.

H. W. Hellman stated that the bank was not embarrassed in the least by the loss, and that Fleishman's bond of $30,000 and his real estate holdings in this city will amply indemnify the institution for any cash he may have taken.

The Farmers and Merchants' bank is the oldest and strongest bank in southern California. It has a capital of $5,000,000, a surplus of $1,000,000, and deposits of $5,500,000.

It is rumored that Fleishman was heavily involved in speculative propositions in copper stocks, which are believed to have received his attention for some time. Later a slump in securities is believed to have caught him. Hellman says he can not imagine the reason for the cashier's action, but suspects the case involves some woman.

It is the general opinion among Fleishman's associates that he has been speculating heavily and lost large sums, possibly more than $100,000.

The bank officials have not determined the amount taken, as a full investigation of books and accounts is necessary before this fact can be established.

Fleishman financed an unsuccessful velodrome for holding bicycle races a year or so ago. This was a factor in which he is said to have lost a large sum. He was also back of a patent city directory, which was a failure, and which cost him large sums. Other enterprises are credited to his speculative inclinations.

CAPTAIN MOSSMAN

Visits the Black River Country
In Search of Outlaws

Sheriff Jim Parks and Deputy C. S. Sands returned to Solomonville last Tuesday from their trip to the Blue and Black river country, where they went with a posse last week to look for the Smith gang of outlaws, who were reported to have been seen about their old haunts recently. This is the gang that killed two of an officers' posse two months ago on Black river. The posse last week consisted of Captain Mossman and three of his rangers and Sheriff Parks and Deputies Gus and Lee Hobbs and Charles Sands—eight in all. They did not find the Smiths or anyone else that was wanted.

They went to the place where it was reported that Alex McLean and a companion had been fired on while they were hunting on the Blue. Sheriff Parks says that what had been taken for a tent proved to be a deceptive fall on tree from which the bark had been riven. At a distance it looked very much like a tent. Captain Mossman and Sheriff Parks had a formidable force and would have given the Smith boys a lively time had they come onto them.

This outlaw gang will be gathered in sooner or later.—Bulletin.

Senator Hoar
after Anarchists.

Washington, Dec. 9.—In the senate today, Hoar of Massachusetts, presented a joint resolution authorizing the president to enter into negotiations with civilized nations for the purpose of punishing persons attempting the lives of chief magistrates. A resolution was passed appropriating seventy-five thousand dollars for installing a government exhibit at the Charleston Exposition was passed.

McLaurin, of South Carolina, made a speech in the senate defining his position in South Carolina and discussing the campaign in that state as well as his position regarding federal patronage in South Carolina and his relationship with it. He said that the campaign against him has been one of calumny, vituperation and misrepresentation. As to appointments in the state, he sought to have Democrats appointed; where this could not be accomplished he tried to have Republicans selected that would give satisfaction to the people. He did not want the crime of burning a postmaster repeated in his state.

WHY PROFESSORS'
HEADS GO INTO THE BASKET

By TOM L. JOHNSON,
Mayor of Cleveland

HERE is probably no other great question of national importance about which so little is known and regarding which so little is taught as the one of taxation. The great colleges of the country to which the people look for the spread of such information are silent as a rule upon this great question. AND WHY? BECAUSE THE PROFESSORS OF THE GREAT AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES, WHICH ARE MAINLY SUPPORTED BY THE ENDOWMENTS OF WEALTHY CAPITALISTS, STAND IN FEAR OF LOSING THEIR POSITIONS IF THEY TEACH THE TRUTH ABOUT THIS QUESTION and even if they devote much attention to it.

I must say that I do not blame them for declining to cut their own throats, but I have known some college professors who have dared to go against the orders of their rich patrons by teaching and talking the truth about economic questions when the truth was opposed to the interests of their employers.

I HAVE ALSO NOTICED THAT ALMOST WITHOUT EXCEPTION THE HEADS OF THE PROFESSORS WENT INTO THE BASKET JUST AS SOON AS THE MILLIONAIRE PATRONS OF THE INSTITUTIONS GAINED COGNIZANCE OF THEIR SPREAD OF PERNICIOUS DOCTRINES.

Defending an Honest Man.Cochise County Bar Favors
Judge Davis.

BY STRONG RESOLUTIONS.

Tombstone Prospector—

Upon receipt yesterday of a Tucson paper purporting that charges had been filed at Washington against Judge George R. Davis, the members of the Tombstone bar, including attorneys from all sections of the territory, arranged for an association meeting today and, accordingly, at 1 o'clock this afternoon the bar was called together. Colonel Wm. Herring was chosen chairman and Charles Bowman acted as secretary. Colonel Herring stated that he had been a member of this bar for twenty years, and had seen many assaults made upon the character of the judiciary, but never had he known of an assault so wicked and entirely groundless as this one on Judge Davis. The Colonel paid a high tribute to Judge Davis' ability and integrity and caustically criticized his assailants. Resolutions endorsing Judge Davis were read. Mr. English moved the adoption of the resolutions and Judge Reilly seconded the motion. Messrs. English, Reilly, Land, Morgan and Hazzard spoke to the motion, reiterating the sentiments contained in the resolutions. Mr. English hazarded the statement that whoever preferred the charges of incapacity and lack of integrity did not want an honest man on the bench. A motion prevailed that the chairman and secretary telegraph a summary of the resolutions to the Attorney General at Washington, and that a copy be engrossed and signed by the bar. Following are the resolutions adopted:

Resolved, That the bar of Cochise county, First Judicial District, Territory of Arizona, has learned with surprise that charges have been filed in the department of justice at Washington reflecting upon the integrity and judicial capacity of Hon. George R. Davis, district judge sitting in this judicial district.

Resolved, That in the opinion of this bar an assault upon the integrity of Hon. George R. Davis can only come from malicious and evil-minded persons, who are unworthy of consideration or belief.

Resolved, That Judge Davis has at all times evinced in his rulings and judicial work the utmost conscientiousness in fairly and honestly reaching a just determination of the issues presented for his consideration.

Resolved, That in his grasp of the various legal propositions, which have confronted Judge Davis, and his determination of the same, he has shown the laborious and intelligent investigations and that his judicial capacity in reaching correct results in the cases tried before him have won for him the admiration, confidence and respect of this bar, and that he brand his cowardly assailants with the basest motives in their assault upon his character and capacity as a judge of this court.

Resolved, That Judge Davis by his unimpeachable industry upon the bench has greatly lightened the burdens of counsel, and that his ability and high courage in encountering and overthrowing all immoral and malevolent schemes of every nature, entitle him to the unstinted support of all classes of our citizens.

Geo. Webb Appointed
Chinese Inspector

George W. Webb today received a telephone message from Nogales that he had been appointed Chinese Inspector, to be stationed at Tucson to succeed the late B. F. Josey. The papers appointing him were sent to Nogales by the secretary of the treasury and will be forwarded here tomorrow. Mr. Webb has been acting Chinese Inspector for the past six weeks in place of Captain Tom Roush, who acted in that capacity for some time. Mr. Webb has been in the service for eight years. He was appointed a line rider at Nogales in September, 1893, by Sam F. Webb, then collector of customs and he has been connected with the Nogales office ever since that time. Mr. Webb is being congratulated today on all sides by his many friends. The place pays $5 per diem and $3.50 extra per diem when traveling. This is more than any Chinese Inspector ever received in Arizona.—Citizen.

Congress Will Take a Recess

Washington, Dec. 10.—Congress will take a recess from Dec. 16, to January 6th, for the holidays.

Nicholas Capel, an Italian, was killed on Wednesday of last week at the Ryerson mine. It seems that he and two others were trying to open a closed ore chute, and to do so put in a pipe filled with powder. As the powder got fast in the pipe the men tried to tamp it with an iron bar, and the result was an explosion with the death of Capel. The man was 29 years old and in good favor with his fellow workmen, who attended his funeral in large numbers on Thanksgiving day.—Correspondence of Bulletin.
